JIMINEZ' DREXEL STAKES.

The Drexel Stakes, run at Washington Park yesterday, was one of the most exciting races from a spectacular point of view that has been seen at the meeting.

The winner turned up in the speedy Jiminez, who was cleverly ridden by jockey Caywood. Getting off well, he took the big son of The Commoner to the front with a dash and, holding him well together, kept him there to the end, winning in a drive by a length from Robert Waddell, who beat the consistent Terminus two and a half lengths for second place.

Waddell's effort was an impressive one as he was conceding ten pounds to the winner and had just gone through a gruelling contest in the Great Western Handicap. Many shrewd turfmen were of the opinion that Saturday's race had taken the edge from his speed and his chances seemed none too rosy in the post parade, as he appeared all tucked up and drawn. In the last eighth Bullman armed and legged him vigorously and it seemed for a moment as if he was going to close on Jiminez, but he faltered in the last fifty yards and gave it up. In the light of the constant drumming the colt has undergone in the last two weeks, his race can be regarded as an excellent one.

Terminus was a keen contender up to the last eighth, where he then showed signs of distress, gradually falling out of the race in the last fifty yards. Rolling Beer's performance was not to his true form. He appeared unable to extend himself and ran like a sluggard throughout. There was a warm hint out on Admonition, but the colt, after running a good three-quarters, retired from the fracas.

To them who give serious attention to form Vulcain appeared to have an easy proposition before him in the second race, a dash of one mile, but instead of winning handily he was put to his best effort to beat Trinity Bell by a half length. It appeared as if Bullman had drawn a fine finish purposely, feeling that the horse under him held everything safe while coming down the last quarter. Brigade under a rather slow pace maintained a fair advantage to the final straightaway where Vulcain, swinging wide, closed in on him. Everyone now expected to see the Hildreth colt "roll home" but Trinity Bell came fast on the inside rail along by the eighth post, causing Bullman to use forceful persuasion on his mount to land him a winner. The race should do Brigade much good and he should be a hard horse to beat at his next essay.

It appeared all over like Eddie Busch in the youngster scramble at six furlongs, but after piloting his field with a good lead to the last eighth, tired and quit, sprawling badly. The winner turned up in Sir Oliver, who laid close up to Eddie Busch to the last eighth and then went to the front under punishment, winning in a drive by a length from Flora Pomona, who came fast, herself at the end but had all she could do to get to the wire a neck in front of South Trimble, who closed with a cyclonic rush and would have been second in another stride or so. Nellie Waddell flashed her usual speed, but could only hold it for five furlongs. Helen Print showed a sharp turn of celerity for nearly five eighths.

Miss Bennett was in grand fettle yesterday and had little trouble in annexing the purse of the first race to her credit. She assumed an easy command at flag drop and never relinquished it afterward, winning easily by two and a half lengths from Burnie Bunton, who out-gamed Likeness a neck for second place. The six furlongs were negotiated in 1:13 flat, a rather creditable performance. Likeness ran right to her mark. It was an entire stretch battle between Burnie Bunton and her for second money. A crowd equally as large as Monday's gathering was present and witnessed a splendid day's sport.

THE HAYES DECISION.

The following full statement of the decision in the case of T. P. Hayes' suit for damages against the New Louisville Jockey Club appeared in the Louisville Courier-Journal of Sunday:

"The American Turf Congress and the Horsemen's Protective Association received a black eye yesterday in the local courts, when Judge Field, in a brief oral opinion, sustained the demurrer to the opinion of Thomas P. Hayes in his suit against the New Louisville Jockey Club, or, in effect, the Western Jockey Club, for $50,000 damages, for being announced by the club as 'a disqualified trainer,' a euphonious term for 'outlawry,' because he had raced his horses on the Little Rock and Nashville tracks,

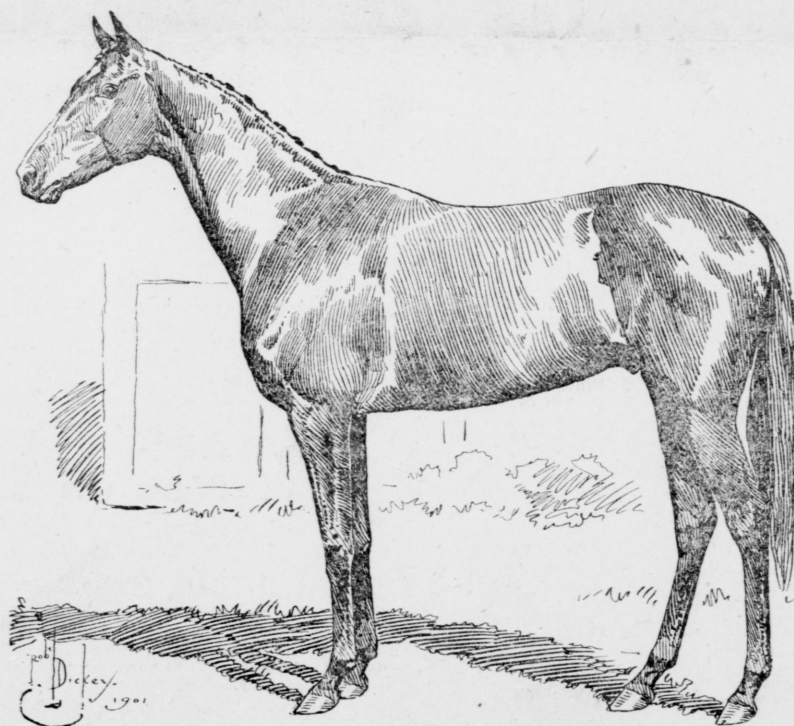

"D. F. Dressen, Secretary, Louisville Jockey Club. 'Under rule 208, Headley horses that have been trained under T. P. Hayes, a disqualified trainer, are disqualified, except may fill stake engagements or purses when they have such engagements. Change of trainer does not change the disqualification.'

"GEORGE H. KUHLE, Secretary."

"Immediately on receipt of the telegram President Schulte ordered Miss Blarney to be declared out of the race.

"Rule 208, which was responsible for Hayes' disqualification, is as follows:

"Any owner or trainer running horses, or jockey riding the same, at any unrecognized meeting, shall be disqualified for all races to which these rules apply. Such horses and all other horses under the control of such owners and trainers shall also be disqualified. A person acting in an official capacity at an unrecognized meeting shall also be disqualified."

PENTECOST, B. C. 2, BY HASTINGS-TARANTELLA.

which do not belong to the Western Jockey Club, of which the New Louisville Jockey Club is a member.

"Judge Field held that the Louisville Jockey Club, or the Western Jockey Club, did not exercise a franchise and was not a public corporation. The rule prohibiting the plaintiff from racing on tracks controlled by the club was not directed against him specially or solely, but against every one who raced on tracks not under this club's control. The rule was not individual as against him. It might tend to produce a monopoly in the racing business, but its enforcement furnished no cause of action, because those making and enforcing the rule did not exercise a franchise. The immediate cause for the suit was the entry by Hayes of Miss Blarney in a race at the last Louisville spring meeting in May. Just before the race was run a telegram was received from George H. Kuhl, Secretary of the Western Jockey Club, which placed Hayes under the ban as a disqualified trainer. The telegram read:

"This rule went into effect on March 18, but at the regular monthly meeting of the Board of Stewards of the Western Jockey Club at Chicago, on April 1, the following resolution was adopted:

"All stake engagements made prior to the adoption of the rules on March 5, 1901, shall be respected by the recognized and licensed meetings of the Western Jockey Club, and horses having such stake engagements shall be eligible to purses at the meetings where they have such stake engagements."

"Hayes, in his petition, alleged that the local association associated itself with numerous owners and promoters of other race tracks, under the name of the Western Jockey Club, for the unlawful purpose of controlling and monopolizing the racing business throughout the western and southern states. He charged that the Western Jockey Club enacted Rule 208 to prevent any horse owned by him or others from

PENTECOST.

A fine looking bay colt by Hastings-Tarantella made his appearance in public at Louisville May 9 in a purse race in which eight other two-year-olds started and when the nine youngsters flashed by the fateful judge's stand this colt was an easy winner by a length and a half, with Schorr's Fred Orgill second and Moore's Golden Glitter third. The winning colt was "Brown Dick's" Pentecost, now well known to Chicago patrons of racing. The distance was four and a half furlongs and the time was 57½ seconds, made over a heavy track. Although it was Pentecost's first start he was an equal favorite with Golden Glitter at post time at 8 to 5 each. He got off in such fashion that his rider had to pull him out and take him around the field, after which it was all over but the shouting. The youngsters that he beat were no more than of the useful order, but there was something about Pentecost's appearance, his way of going and the manner in which he won that made observers join in his owner's enthusiastic opinion to the effect that Pentecost was destined to prove one of the stars of the good year 1901. He ran but this one race at the Louisville meeting and went to Latonia bearing the reputation of a sure enough crack.

At Latonia he ran twice and scored a win each time. May 13 he started in a purse race at four and a half furlongs against Jaubert, The Rival, Hunter Raine, Bud Embry, Frank Mc, Axminster and Marcos, and after running well back until the stretch turn was reached passed easily into the lead and leaving the others rapidly won by three lengths in 55½ seconds with Jaubert second and The Rival third. His reputation brought up from Louisville had sufficed to make him a 1 to 3 favorite and he justified this extravagant favoritism in convincing fashion. His other race at Latonia was for the Harold Stakes at five furlongs. The race was over a slow track and only the owners of Andy Williams and Owenton had the hardihood to send their youngsters to the post against him. It was the same old story. Pentecost took the lead early in the race and retaining it without being seriously challenged, won out by himself two lengths before Andy Williams, himself a proved good colt. Time, 1:04½. Pentecost was a 2 to 5 favorite. Under the circumstances and unbeaten three times winner, and with the reputation of being able to do much greater things than he had been called upon to display in public, it is no wonder that his credentials were viewed with great respect when he landed in Chicago prepared to do battle with the equine stars sure to congregate here. He was saved for a Washington Park campaign where his career has hardly been what was anticipated.

His first start here was on the day that Robert Waddell sprang into unexpected fame by winning the American Derby. It was in a purse at four and one-half furlongs, with fourteen starters, among them being the grand filly Endurance by Right. He carried 123 pounds to her 120, the others having imposts ranging from 118 pounds down to 108. Endurance by Right was an even money favorite and won by two lengths, the fast filly Magi beating Pentecost two lengths for second money. Pentecost footed it along with Endurance by Right in race horse fashion for part of the route, but the high speed requisite caused him to tire. Those who have enjoyed the pleasure of witnessing Endurance by Right run know that it is her fashion to produce the extreme of fatigue in the colts and fillies that essay keeping up with her, so that, on the whole, Pentecost's experiracing on any track not owned by it, and to outlaw them and their horses if they did race on such tracks. Hayes further alleged that he raced his horses on the Little Rock and Nashville tracks, which do not belong to the Western Jockey Club, and that thereby he incurred the ill-will of the New Louisville Jockey Club, and other members of the Western Jockey Club, and as a consequence he was announced by them to be "a disqualified trainer." He charged that his disqualification was in pursuance of an illegal combination, and for the purpose of creating and preserving a monopoly of the racing business throughout the west and south. Hayes further stated that his disqualification was solely because of the failure of the Western Jockey Club to get the outstanding tracks to become a part of the organization, and to compel him to accede to their demands not to run his horses or those he trained on any outstanding track.

"Mr. Sapinsky, of counsel for Hayes, said yesterday that in all probability an amended petition would be filed, which would endeavor to meet Judge Field's ruling, by setting out specifically that Rule 208 was directed especially against Hayes and other trainers whose horses were run on tracks other than those controlled by the Western Jockey Club.

"If Judge Field should sustain a demurrer to the amended petition, the case will be taken to the Court of Appeals."

TURNER IN TROUBLE.

NEW YORK, July 9.—In the last race at Brighton Beach today Jockey N. Turner put up an extremely suspicious looking ride on Wax Taper, allowing him to be beaten by such an indifferent performer as Bedeck. For this he has been suspended by the stewards of the Jockey Club pending an investigation.

once was not unusual and his showing was good. The time was fast, 54 3/4 seconds.

His next start, June 28, was in a five and a half furlongs dash. The field was Allan-a-Dale, 111; Helen Print, 108; Harry Wilson, 106; Bragg, 111, and Pentecost, 118. Allan-a-Dale won and Pentecost crossed his legs and fell, so the race counts for nothing so far as he is concerned. He was running along easily in second place when the accident took place. July 2 he ran second to Abe Frank for the Kenwood Stakes, defeating Sir Oliver, Herodiade and Jaubert. He carried 121 pounds to Abe Frank's 125 and was beaten by two lengths. The time for the five furlongs was 1:03 3/4, the track being heavy. He swerved considerably under punishment and may not have fully recovered from the shock of his fall in his previous race.

On the whole it must be said that Pentecost has hardly met expectations at Washington Park, yet he has run well in all of his races and may yet redeem himself by feats of speed and endurance up to the standard his shrewd and experienced trainer has believed him capable of.

Went to post at 3:03. At post 19 minutes. Start good for all but Card Gillock. Won ridden out; second easily. Hungarian was off well and received a perfect ride. It seemed as though he interfered with Prima II. at the end but no foul was claimed. Prima II. was the best. She had a rough passage. Tobe Paine had no excuses. Tom Gilmore ran an improved race. Two Annies was poorly ridden.

Winner—Ch. f. by Russell—Memoria.
Went to post at 2:30. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second driving. Miss Bennett was easily the best and the race was never in doubt. Burnie Bunton ran to the mark and showed gameness in the closing strides. Likeness was pinned into the inside rail at last eighth, but it hardly made any difference in the result. Maud Gonne was outrun all the way and ran below expectations.

Scratched—25016 Dorothy Lee, 102.

Winner—Ch. c. by Kingston—Arrowgrass.
Went to post at 3:00. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second handily. Vulcain came strong in the last eighth and under an able ride stalled off Trinity Bell's bold bid at the end. The latter clung to the inside rail down the stretch and finished with force. Brigade was right there for seven furlongs and then began to hang. Amor was stopping perceptibly in the last sixteenth. Bonnie Lissak was never a factor.

Corrected Weights—Vulcain, 117.

Winner—B. c. by The Commoner—Birdie T.
Went to post at 3:30. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second easily. Jiminez showed the most speed for the entire route but had to be driven out to the last ounce to stall off Robert Waddell's dashing bid in the last quarter. Bullman rode the latter hard through the stretch and it looked for a moment that he would close but he hung in the last fifty yards. He looked all tucked up going to the post but his race was a grand one, coming so closely upon his effort in the Great Western handicap. Terminus looked dangerous at the last eighth but stopped badly in the closing strides. Admonition ran well for six and a half furlongs and then stopped. Rolling Boer was never a factor. The same may be said of W. J. Deboe and Operator.

Scratched—23863 Canmore, 117; (26290) Possart, 110; 26542 Duelist, 119; 26456 Monograph, 105.

Winner—B. c. by Deceiver—Eugenia.
Went to post at 4:05. At post 10 minutes. Start only fair. Won easily; next three driving. Captain Gaines moved up fast on the inside rail turning into the stretch and was going away from his field at the end. Nettie Regent was stopping palpably in the last sixteenth. Thurles came fast in the last eighth from far back. Vincennes closed like a whirlwind and would have been second in another stride or two. Andes tired in the last eighth. St. Wood made a sensational run up to the leaders down the backstretch, but was fading away in the closing strides. Light Ball was right there for six furlongs. Tom Embry ran a poor race and can do better.

Winner—B. c. by Sir Oliver—Ollie Glenn.
Went to post at 4:45. At post 10 minutes. Start excellent. Won driving; second the same. Sir Oliver laid along second to Eddie Busch to the last eighth and then came away under punishment. Flora Pomona finished with vim, but was not quite good enough to beat the winner. Her race was a good one, taking into consideration her early entanglement. South Trimble came from nowhere and was moving down his horses at the end. He would have been second in a few more strides. Nellie Waddell had a fine turn of speed for five furlongs. Belle's Commencer ran at about an even clip throughout. Eddie Busch stopped with his mouth wide open in the last eighth when he looked all over a winner. Helen Print was right there for five furlongs.

Scratched—26432 Pentecost, 118; 26515 Jordan, 111; 26408 Lord Quex, 106.

Winner—Ch. h. by Hindoo—Cambria.

Went to post at 5:25. At post 10 minutes. Start fair. Won in a canter; second driving. Cambrian laid within easy call of the leader to the head of the stretch, where Knight let him down and he cantered home. Scotch Plaid was the best of the others. Sam Lazarus Esq. was tiring at the end. He fouled Irish Jewel on the inside rail at the last sixteenth post, causing the latter to pull up. The Thompson gelding would have been closer up but for this interference. Silurian ran a dull race. So did Major Dixon. Irish Jewel ran a good race and had it not been for the crowding at the sixteenth post might have been third. Possart was always outrun.

Scratched—21781 Greetings, 96; 26412 Seide, 92.

Went to post at 2:50. At post 17 minutes. Start good. Won ridden out; second the same. Our Lizzie was outrun in the early stages but came fast through the stretch and had something in reserve at the finish. Maple saved ground on all turns but tired in the run home. Manga lost ground by making a wide turn in the stretch. Ammo ran an improved race. Budge acted badly at the post and ran a half mile at top speed to a false breakaway.

Winner—Ch. f, by Tammany—Wood Violet.
Went to post at 3:36. At post 16 minutes. Start straggling. Won ridden out; second easily. Nellie Bawn, well handled, caught Green Erin tiring in the last sixteenth. She was fractions at the post and kicked every horse that came within her reach. Green Erin was prominent in all breakaways, and under the circumstances she ran a good race. Viviani was badly handled. She ran on her own courage, as Watson was of no help to her. Blazeband showed early speed but quit badly when challenged.
Scratched—Fair Annette, 110; 26189 Lauretta Burke, 110; 26558 Silver Owl, 110.

Winner—Ch. c, by Tonten—Maid of Athol.
Went to post at 4:11. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Horsa improved suddenly, showed the most speed and was never fully extended. Edith Q. was outrun for the first three-quarters, then came with a great rush through the stretch, but swerved under punishment in the last seventy yards. Lizzie A. ran a good honest race. The distance is a little farther than she wants to go. Algie M. ceased to be a contender after going three quarters. Land of Clover showed speed but quit in the stretch.

Winner—B. c, by Pirate of Pezanza—Nellie G.
Went to post at 4:39. At post 8 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second driving. The Referee was never extended and his race was a good one. Troxler's handling of Lemuel was a disgrace. He pulled him up soon after the start for no apparent cause, then came strongly when the race was nearly over. Wire In ran well, but faltered in the last few strides. Harry Beck likes a softer track and possibly could not concede the weight.

Went to post at 5:10. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won driving and all out; second easily. Annie Lauretta came with a rush in the last sixteenth and got up in time to win on the post. Troxler made too much use of Tyrba in the early stages and rode a very weak finish in the last sixteenth. Little Tommy Tucker, outrun in the first part of the race, came strongly at the end, although his rider was of little help to him. Custodian was always outrun. Montreal's race was a bad one and nowhere near her previous efforts.
Scratched—26551 Pando, 86.

Went to post at 5:38. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won driving and all out; second easily. Jack Carey was persevered with until the stretch was reached, and when given his head at that point, came away under pressure. Fiffeld ran a good, honest race through the field, but lacked speed on the flat. Mrs. Bradshaw did her best. Terry Ranger did not perform as well as he did in his last previous effort.

Went to post at 2:30. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second the same. Princeton Girl was bumped on the first turn, carried wide on the stretch turn and outrun early, but finished very fast through the last half and was best. The Amazon closed ground steadily from a poor beginning, getting second place through a vigorous finish. May W., well placed throughout, failed to stick right at the end. Agnes D. ran in greatly improved form. Her only good races last year were on this track. She made up a lot of ground after the first quarter and acts like a stayer. Roxane and Belle of Lexington displayed brilliant speed for six furlongs, tiring in the stretch. Annie Thompson is being raced into condition and will improve.

Winner—Ch. g, by Meddler—Zagri.
Went to post at 3:00. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Zinziber, lucky, well handled and saved in the first mile, finished fast and won with much in reserve. Eophone appeared a certain winner for a mile and a half, but was unable to recover after a bad mistake in taking the outside, but for which he might have won. Orman appeared a contender and was well up to the last jump. Captain Piers also showed speed, but ran as if short. Mara made no effort with Isen after her refusal at the first jump.
Scratched—26578 Fabius, 135.
Zinziber, show, evens. Eophone, show, 1 to 3. Orman, show, 1 to 2. Isen, show, 1 to 2.
